RE: Wil Jenny's

Dear Mr. DuBois:

During the past three years, there have been no major or frequent alcohol-related problems by this establishment. The majority of incidents in which the police have been called to this establishment appear to be related to customers however; alcohol was a factor in only a few of the incidents.

One notable incident occurred on February 16, 2008 (2008-003243). In this case an underage individual was using a fake driver's license to purchase alcohol and a parent was also providing alcohol to the person. The individual was cited for consuming while underage and possession of a fraudulent identification document. The establishment was absolved of any wrongdoing.

Please contact me if I can be of further service.
